

12. Story of Asan

Asan was born in Katiravan clan. Son of Iraku. Dasaratha was the father of the king. He is blessed with purity and strength. Anja Nenchinan for nothing. He went to the swayamvara of Indumati, the daughter of Venda of Vidarappa - where many kings were assembled. As he was full of beauty and masculinity, Hindumati focused on him. She garlanded him. Maman Manai Yut entered the house like a meadow and was happy. The kings who had come in search of marriage were heartbroken. All gathered together and opposed Asana. Taking Anjai as his teammate, Ivan fought against Anjadu and defeated them all together. His fearlessness, his rightful place as his uncle's house, and his ability to think carefully helped him win over them. He clearly understood the message that one who does things from a safe place with good intentions needs no other support than fear.

[fear]