

18. The story of stepping

At the request of the Chola king, Thiruthonder intended to sing the Purana from the Shekchilar Thillai. He prepared all the preparations for singing and started singing. It is a history of volunteers. For a while he pondered how to step and sing. Then a creature arose from the sky and said, "Become the blackest of the world." Sekizhar Thiruvula was happy and began to sing Periyapurana with that.

(Puliyur Venpa) [Serving]