21. More story

A person named Dakhchi was ruling from Tagadur (Dharmapuri). He was one of the shopkeepers. One day he was wandering in the forest on Ganjamalai. Then he saw a saint there. He worshiped him and prayed that he would be given a medicine that would remove the disease. He gave a gooseberry seed to the king and said, "Those who eat this seed will not get gray skin and may live a long time in the world." After receiving the fruit, he became aware of his city. A few days passed. One day, Olavaiyar came to the house of many people. He made Akani eat more and more with Auvaiyar. After he ate he told Auvaiyar the news about Akani. Olavaiyar who ate that fruit lived in the world for a long time. "Karunellikkani"

(Karapuranathar Purana)