

3. The story of Akhalikai

Akalikai was the daughter of Sage Mulkala. Unmatched fortune match. People and gods tried together to get her married.

Sage Mulkala formulated an arrangement that only those who do penance by submerging themselves in water for a long time can reach her. Many tried. No one could drown in water and do penance for a long time. It was Sage Gautama who won this marriage test. Akali also became his wife.

Indra became fierce on Akalika. However, he tried very hard to turn off Akalikai and leave. He did many maneuvers. Akalikai is caught in his intrigues but she is immoral. Gautama cursed Akaliga to stone. Indra also got the curse.

Discipline is what gives rise. Failure to do so will result in an ignominious birth. Akalikai is well known.

[discipline]