

32. Anuman Story (1)

Anuman is the one who appeared in this world as the god of wind in the monkey house. He stayed with Sukrivan in Kidkintai. He is a great man and talks to everyone with humility and modesty. So everyone celebrated him as a good man. When Rama sought Sukriva's friendship, he stood in front of him and made a connection between the two. His humble innurai etc. also made Ramabhran happy. Humility is also said to make a person beautiful and not accessories, this man understood.

[rhetoric]

(Ramayana)