

33. Anuman Story (2)

Anuman acted as a messenger to Ramapiran and did many rare favors. A number of inferences have been made. Ramabhran reached Ayodhya and gave gifts to everyone along with his crowning. No gift was given to Anuman. This upset Sita Prati. She said, "Anuman, who has done us many favors, has not been given any gift." Ramapiran replied, "Anuman did not expect any gift from us and helped us. Can we change hands for the help he has done? If we look at the benefit of unexpected help, he said that the ocean is bigger. The elders have said! However, Sitabrati was not satisfied. Immediately, Ramapiran gave Anuman a pearl necklace. Anuman took it and put it in his mouth. It was only then that Sita Prati understood the truth of the statement Ramapiran had made by biting the pearl with his teeth.

(Ramayana)