

41. The story of the Aboothiadis called Tirunavukarasunayanar. He inscribed the name of Thirunavukkarasar on all the charitable roads he made. He also named his children Thirunavukarasu. Even when one of his children died, he started feasting on it as an object. He made the world well aware of the fact that one's life should be kept at home and one's life should be for the purpose of appreciating the guests and helping them. Thirunavukkarasar's praise and hospitality made him a home. "Utalan was standing in Tavamdi, Analan Oonpunala Atanala Nukharvun Tirunauk Karachenumor Sota Neluthiung said that he was suffering and got a big faith called Aboothi.

(Nalvar Naanmani Maalai)

(hospitality)