

51. Story of Ariaswar

A person named Ariyasuvar is not one or two; A thousand people in total. These are his people. They were united in knowledge, beauty and manliness. Thakkan looked at these people of his and said that you should do penance and take up the profession of creation*. They went and performed penance. Narada knew the penance understanding of these people to get creative work; Quickly they came to the milk. "What are you penance for?" said Usa. They fulfilled their purpose. Narada. "However, all of them will be full of suffering. The best thing is that you get a home without any suffering. He advised that no one can attain the glory of a home without any suffering. They realized that if they get rid of the ever-incomplete ava, then they can attain a life of happiness that will never change, and they did penance and attained home.

[Remove Ava]