

53. The story of Arachuna Sannyasi

Aruchuna is one of the Pandavas. Good for salesmen etc. He has up to ten names. He went on a water journey to correct one reason. After swimming through many rivers, he finally reached Dwaraka. Kannan fell in love with Subhatrai, his younger sister. She was also in love with him. Balarama and others wanted to marry her off to Duryodhana. On reaching Dwaraka, Arjuna stayed in a hermitage. Aruchuna Sannyasi's opinion is to go hand in hand. Kannan and others who understood sent Subhatrai to him. Subhadrai Chinnal worked for Aruchuna Sannyasi. Aruchuna saw the time and took the ascetic Subatra with him.

Balarama and others realized the message and opposed the fake saint. But to no avail. Aruchunana realized that the understanding of non-penance evil deeds by hiding in the penance circle is like catching birds of prey in a net.
