

56. Story of Arundhati

Arundhati of suitable imagination, the wife of a pious and penitent visitor, is well endowed with virtues. She is still a star because of her beauty. Arundhati Partha and Ammi Mithi Talum (Ammi Mithi Talum) occur in weddings in order to become the newly married Bhuvaiyar Dhamkalpudaya, and not to be disgraced like Akalikai by making a mistake. She is also a good person. His wife's chastity and the pride of her son made the life of Vasitra great. Everyone was well aware through Arundhati that the chastity of the wife was a boon to the world and consequently auspicious.

[Manaimatshi and Makadperum]