Brief history :

He was a hunter. He suddenly felt overflowing love for Sivan. He hunted the entire day and prepared meat offerings for Sivan. He stayed awake the entire night and guarded the Sivalingam. Blood started to ooze from one eye of Sivan. He plucked off His eye and placed it on Sivan's eye. Then blood started to ooze from Sivan's other eye. When the Saint attempted to pluck off His other eye, Sivan held His hand and said, "Stop Kannappa!" three times. Sivan gave Him the name "Kannappa" and blessed Him with liberation.
