

SIVA-JNĀNA -BŌDHA, SŪTRA 10

- The soul inseparable with its triple fetters of Āṇava, karma and māyā in its bound state does not know the inseparable God with him/her.
- Similarly, the soul in inseparable union with the God in its realized state of mukti does not know itself separately.
- In this state of advaita non-dual union, the soul does all its actions as of His, and is no longer entangled by the triple fetters.

This tenth Sūtra of Siva-Jnāna -Bōdha is explained in Siva- Jnāna- Siddiyār Songs 304 to 309.
